On Thursday morning, about 8 o'clock, the denia horrible and heartrending murder had been con ted in their neighborhood. It appears that at the time named, Samuel Hoffman and Dr. Moses Low-enberg, residing at No. 141 First avenue, had an alterestion occasioned by some difference of opinion about the trifling circumstance of having the basement hall-door shut or open. Lowenberg wanted to have the door open, as he occupied the front base ment, and Hoffman who lived in the back basement wanted the door kept shut.

The quarrel, which took place on Thursday morn ing, was occasioned directly by the doctor overing the door, and Hoffman subsequently simigers, and will sail for Boston at 10 a. m., where she ting it. The door was opened by the doctor a second time, and a second time. Hoffmen attempted to shut it, when he was met in the ball by the doctor, who had a sword-caue in his hand, whe The steamship Bavaria, from New-York, arrived drew the sword, and plunged it into the person of Hoffman twice.
